Discrimination in Housing is Prohibited

www.labor.mo.gov/mohumanrights

The Missouri Human Rights Act makes it illegal to discriminate in any aspect of housing because of an individual's race, color, religion, national origin, ancestry, sex, familial status (children under the age of 18 living with parents or legal custodians, pregnant women, and people securing custody of children under the age of 18), or disability, including:

- Refusal to rent or sell housing;
- Lying about the availability of housing;
 - Evicting someone from housing;
- Sexually harassing tenants;
- Discriminating in the terms of housing; such as amount of rent or security deposits; house sale prices; the use of facilities; financing; or maintenance;
- Refusing to make a mortgage loan or purchase a loan;

- Refusing to provide information regarding loans;
- Imposing different terms or conditions on a loan, such as different interest rates, points, or fees;
- Discriminating in appraising a property;
- Advertising or making any statement that indicates a limitation or preference based on race, color, religion, national origin, ancestry, sex, familial status, or disability; or
- Refusing to allow an individual with a disability to make reasonable modifications to a dwelling to accommodate the disability.
